Jocose Tie website

Team Awesome

About our team

———

We're team of people passionate about learning, building and creating great project together.

We have decided to create a webpage which will support Jocose Tie company selling over Etsy platform.

Who we are?

We are team AWESOME – we are Helena&Terence&Sultan
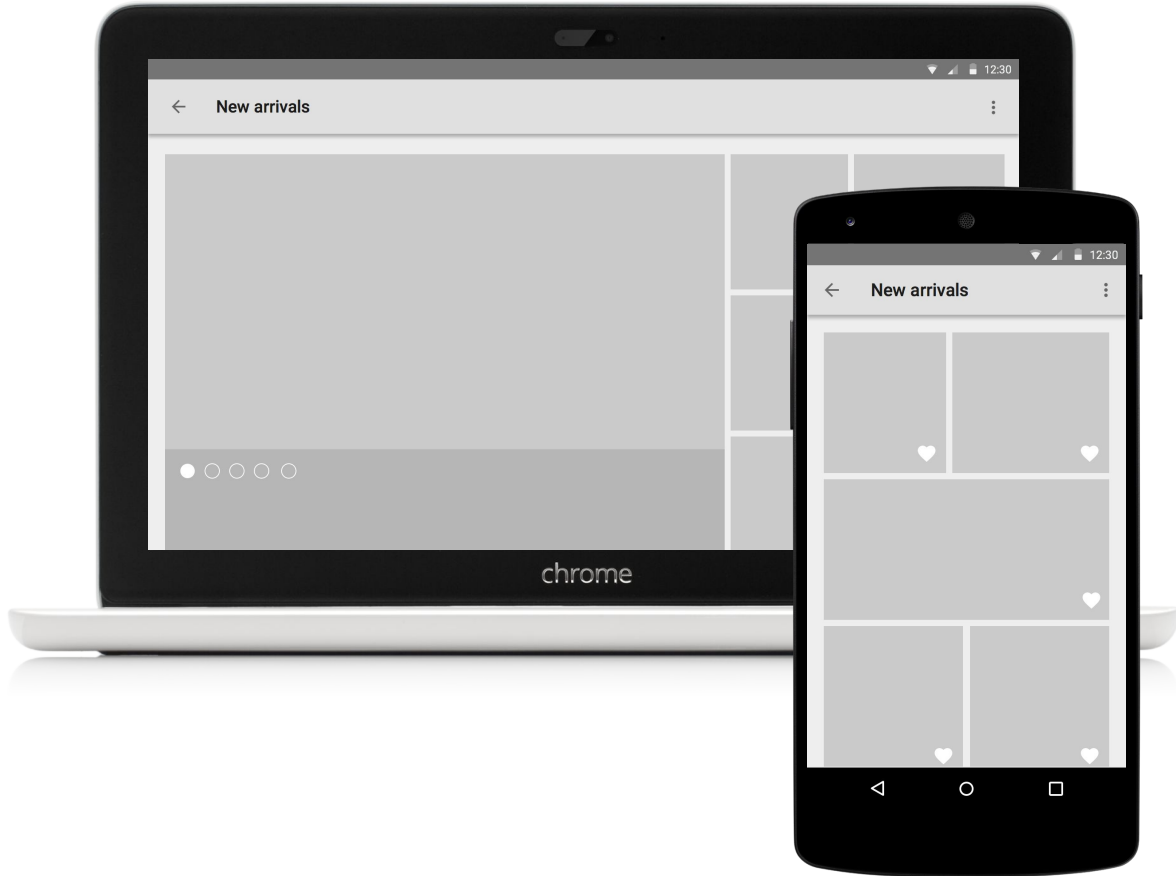

Our top skills used during the project work

Website

What we have had applied and learned:

- Bootstrap (header, footer,
  social media part, modals, carousel,login, cards, gallery, viewports …)
- Css styling (fonts, final designing touches, …)
- carousel function
- Thinking about the viewport breakpoints in the solution
- Using documentation
- Searching on google/w3school/mozilla and more and more

Home page

- Header with logo
- Button with link to Etsy shop (Etsy shop is open in new tab)
- Navbar with Login
- Carousel
- Button with link to Etsy shop

Home Page - bottom

Login modal
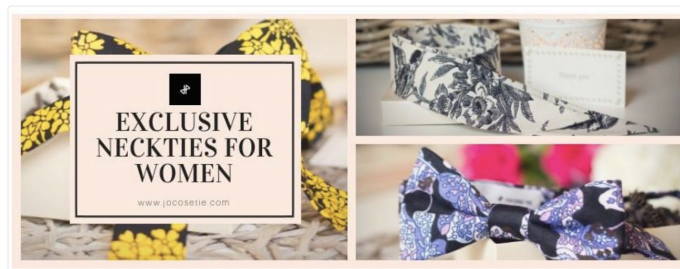

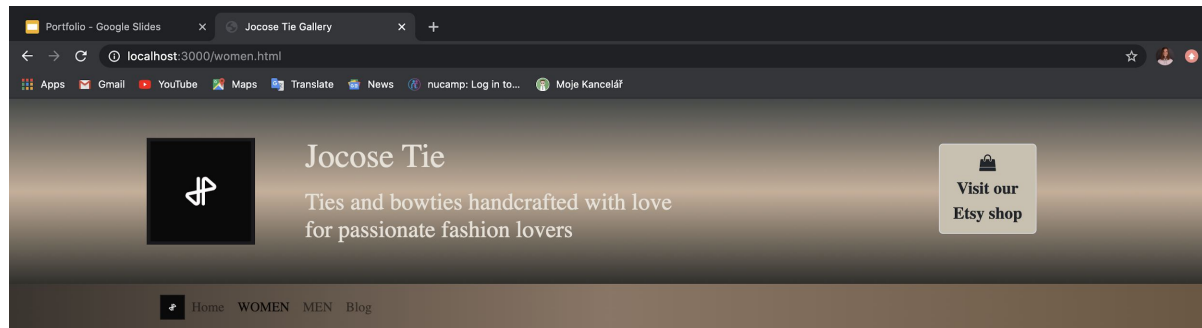

Women and Men product's gallery sites

- Gallery – men products
- Keeping navbar
- Keeping header
- Keeping footer
- Keeping button
- All links are working

Womens site

- Women site is bringing small "stylish" touch with banner
- + same gallery like for mens

Blog site

- Stylish blog site
- Different type of card gallery
- Working modals

Blog site modal

Button link function

Team work

- Team meeting via zoom
- Team communication flow via Slack
- GitHub as a team repository for merging our work
- Design discussions and research
- Finding working compromises
- Discover new tools - like Fork repository

What to do differently next time

- Start with precisely defined roles within the team
- Have a project plan and tool where to have to-do with timing and measuring list and "proof of concept"
- Have exactly defined tools/languages/framework
- Set-up daily Stand-up meetings
